Superintendent of Weights and Measures Will Ask Legislature to Amend Statutes.

When the General Assembly convenes it will be asked to enact a law repealing all laws specifying legal bushel weights, or legal weights for other dry measures of all volumes, and to enact such statutes as will insure the

The new law as sought by the Nanot give a uniform basis of selling in all States, but will locally heal present defects, do away with the fee system, and fix for the sealer a flat salary, to be ascertained and paid by the city, or county, as the case may be. The revised law will require the appointment of the sealer by the Mayor, Council, Administrative Board, or supervisors. visors. When Colonel Richardson went into the office in 1897, he found that only nine counties and two cities in the State had sealers, and immediately be-gan a campaign to remedy the defect. At present there are fifty-seven scalers, forty-four of whom were appointed at his request. Forty-seven countles have no senlers, and in most of the cities and counties where they were appointed, Colonel Richardson had to supply testing outfits.
